MANCHESTER PUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1110 HULL STREET BEATTER BLOCK.

From the present outlook it appears as if the city fathers will be after the salaried officeholders with a sharp stick and in all propability the axe will be used pretty freely during the coming spring.

City Auditor John W. Hall has written to each officer in the city at the instance of the City Council.

In this letter he requests the official to notify him of the amount of salary received and what amount of money he gets by commissions or otherwise. They are instructed to answer his communication by the 21st day of the present month.

At a recent meeting of the Council and previous to the election of the present udge of the Hustings court by the Legislature, his salary was reduced. It was understood at that time that all the Mannerster salaried officials would be dealt with by the Committee on Retrenchment sometime in the spring.

UNDER ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Mr. Walter L. Alley and Miss Luia B.
Williams, were quietly married last night at the parsonage of Central Methodist church. Only a few relatives and fatimate friends were in attendance. Rev. W. W. Lear pronounced the words that made the couple man and wife.

Mr. Alley is a young business man of this city where he is held in high esteem. The bride is an attractive young lady and is the possessor of a host of friends.

Mrs. Mary Thorp and Mr. William Fortune were united in the body bonds of matrimony last night at the bride's residence in Swansboro. Rev. W. T. Williams pastor of West-End Methodischurch was the officieting minister.

TO REMODEL THE CHURCH.

The official board of Fifth-Street Methons church have decided to remodel their church, and the work has been begun. This improvement has been found necessary on account of the building not being sufficient to accommodate the large and constantly increasing congrestorm doors in the main entrance. Level will also erect a gallery around a portion of the building. This will give them accommodations for a great many more people than the church will now hold.

A NEW MISSION.

A NEW MISSION.

A bible class has been organized for any and everybody in this city, and they will meet in room No. 9. Leader building every Sunchy morning at 10 oclock. Special Poilcemen Myer Angle and D.
C. Duke, and Mr. John F. Enright early yesterday morning arrested and lodged in the Henrico County Jail four prisoners who are believed to be implicated in the many petty robberies just beyond the city limits in Henrico. The men were living in a cave on the premes of Mr. R. L. Harrison, about three miles below Richmond on the Peninsular Diviston of the Chesapeake and Ohlo railway.
For some time the people living in that neighborhood had been greatly annoyed by their chicken roosts being robbed, and by their chicken roosts being robbed, and by other depredations committed from time to time. It was suspected by the officers that the negroes living in the cave as reported were responsible for some of these depredations, and so the policemen armed themselves well, and taking with them warrants issued by Magistrate Lewis, of Henrico, went to Magistrate Lewis, of Henrico, went to the scene.

When the officers reached the place they found a large dug-out some ten feet square. On the sides were places cut out in the shape of bunks, and in the centre of the temporarary cave was a place for a fire. A comfortable coal fire was burning, and the negroes were asleep in their bunks. There were about two tons of coal and a lot of leaf tobacco in the dug out. This is believed to have been stolen, so the officers seized it to hold for the proper owners.

Car Passengers.
"The people of Richmond have got to be protected against such outrages as this," said Justice John, as he decided the case of J. E. and W. M. Perkins, the two young men who had boarded a Traction car on the afternoon of Sunday, the 16th, instant, while in a state of intoxication and created a disturbance of colossal proportions.

As a result of the row the conductor was laid up for a day or two and Perkins was confined to the house for seve-when W. M. Perkins was placed on the stand he stated that he knew nothing whatever of the affair; that he was too drunk to realize or remember anything in connection with it. He could recall nothing from the time he left Eighteenth and Frankin streets to take the car until Monday morning when he found himself at home in bed under a doctor's care.

eross-warrant had also been swort out against Johnson, charging him with assault, but this charge was dismissed and the Justice found the two Perkinses guilty of creating a disturbance on the ear, and fined them $50 each, which was

ITALIAN ART.

Was Splendidly Illustrated and Described by Mr. Louis Fagan Last Night.

The Latin Quarter, or "Bohemian Set." in Kichmond is quite small, so far as the study of Italian art is concerned, but it is a matter for congratulation that the circle of admirers of Italian art in this city is very large.

This fact was attested by the crowded condition of the Academy of Music has night upon the occasion of Mr. Louis Fagan's discourse on "The National Gallery, London, Italian School."

Mr. Fagan was for several years and attachee of the National Gallery of the British Museum, and, besides a lecturer, is a critic and an artist, and, therefore, is perfectly competent to handle the subject.

The speaker was assisted in his lower.

is perfectly competent to handle the subject.

The speaker was assisted in his lecture by splendidly displayed stereorticon views that gave the interested audience an insight into Italian art from the earliest days, when the pictures they came from the studios were very crude and would not in these days be used as advertising signs, to the time of Angelo and Raphael, the master of their styles.

Considerable interest was displayed in Mr. Fagan's descriptions of the various pictures, and the circumstances under which they were painted, as well as the mainer in which he referred to the different schools of Italian art, and there is little doubt that the art students who were present profited very much by the lecture, while the lovers of art in general were sorry when Mr. Fagan closed.

negro buys, made faces at Mr. J. W. B. Newton and hit him with a stick on the street, and they were fined $3 cach. William Foster, an imbeelle, who has lived at the Almshouse for some time, was sent to jail for twelve months, because in one of his crazy moments he hit M. B. Perkins. Superintendent Davis testified that Foster was a dangerous man to have at the Almshouse.

Dennis Cass, colored, was shown to have assaulted Fields Finney and it cost him $5. Joseph Allen keeps a barroom, and he made charges against Lucien Mayo, Louis Crowder. William Lee, Joseph Vaughen and Willie Turpin, accuring them of tresteasing upon his premises and using indecent language. He falled to appear to press his charges, however, and the accused were dismissed.

Daniel Morris, a colored man, is in tro-ble. He met a man with some from bars on his shoulder, and the man asked him to hold the bars for him until he returned.

Dan agreed to hold the bars for the stranger, but the latter never came back, although long Daniel waited.

An officer saw Daniel patiently waiting and now the bars are at the First Station and Daniel is still waiting.

Josiah Honoyman and Charles Lee Fravier, the two negre crooks who are under sentence of various terms in jail for theft, were brought up again yesterday to tell why they took a large amount of lead pipe from a south Third street residence. Some witnesses falled to re-port and the explanation was postponed by Justice John to some future data year.
